POLICE AND FIREMEN CALLED OUT TO QUELL PENITENTIARY RIOT

Seventy Prisoners On Hunger Strike Wreck Baltimore Prison.

ONE BADLY INJURED

Barrage of Water From Fire Plug Laid Down On Rioters.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 20.—Seventy hunger strikers, segregated in a dormitory of the Maryland penitentiary there, broke out of their cells about 2:30 o'clock this morning and rioted in the building until daylight. The interior of the dormitory was wrecked. But none of the prisoners escaped. City police and firemen were called out to help quell the disturbance. Not until fire hose was turned on the rioters did they show any sign of quieting down. The authorities waited until daylight before entering the building because the prisoners had broken all the electric lights before the trouble started. At 7 o'clock the prisoners were still in charge of the dormitory, but had quieted down under the persuasive influence of several streams of water from fire hose.

At 8 o'clock the prisoners were still in possession of the dormitory. There were 13 guards on duty when the rioting started, but acting warden Bailey could not say whether any of these had been injured. The warden refused to allow newspapermen to enter the building.

Firemen at daylight, made their way into the building preceded by a barrage of water from the high pressure system. One of the firemen was seriously injured when the rioting prisoners hurled a heavy iron door against him. Comrades rescued the injured fireman. There are hundreds of prisoners in the Maryland penitentiary and at the height of the rioting the racket and din could be heard for blocks. By the time the city police and firemen arrived the prisoners had broken the windows, battered their cells and torn up everything within reach. Buckets and bricks were hurled out of the windows at the police who surrounded the building to prevent the escape of any of the men. Shots were fired by the police to cow the rioters, but to no avail.

Hundreds of prisoners went on a strike a few days ago for a "better variety" of food.

The warden met this with an ultimatum that the men who would not work would not eat. The majority of the prisoners decided to work. But the seventy who took part in this morning's rioting refused to work and were segregated in a dormitory and put on a bread and water diet.

REVOLUTION ENDS IN CALIFORNIA

Under the agreement all contracts of the Cantu administration are considered as sanctioned by the government, and all Cantu employees are relieved of responsibility in connection with them. Other stipulations, included retention of certain Cantu employees, resignation of Cantu in a "dignified manner," granting to Cantu soldiers the choice of remaining in the territorial service or enlistment in the federal forces, and nomination and acceptance of General Luis M. Salazar as governor.

TOTAL POPULATION OF UNITED STATES ESTIMATED AT 105,082,600 IN 1919

Washington, Aug. 20.—The total population of the United States, estimated as of the middle of fiscal year 1919, was 105,082,600 according to a report on the financial statistics of the states, issued today by Director Rogers of the census bureau.

ANTI-SUFFRAGE LEADERS BEGIN FINAL STRUGGLE

Motion For Reconsideration of Ratification In South Made.

COLBY IS NOTIFIED

Expect Friday's Line Up To Be Same As It Was Wednesday.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Anti-suffragists today will make a last supreme effort to undo Tennessee's ratification of the nineteenth amendment according to the announcement of Speaker L. H. Walker.

The speaker declared that he would bring his motion for reconsideration up before the house today, the last day on which he alone can bring it up. He expressed his absolute confidence that he had the votes to reconsider and beat the amendment.

Reports were current here that Secretary of State Roberts for Tennessee already has forwarded to Secretary Colby at Washington the certificate of ratification of the suffrage amendment by the Tennessee legislature. No confirmation of the report was forthcoming.

Suffrage men, however, declared that the lineup will be as it was Wednesday, 49 to 47. Neither side has budged an inch, in the general opinion.

A letter from Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, was read by the antis at a mass meeting held last night. The antis hope to influence a few Democratic votes away from ratification on this election and claim they have already done so.

The grand jury probe of the anti-suffrage lobby got busy as soon as it had been charged by Judge Debow Thursday. The first man called was J. S. Eichelberger, "director of publicity" for the antis. It did not finish with him Thursday and has called for him to bring his check stubs with him today. Certain clerks drawn on the Riggs National Bank of Washington are going to be gone into thoroughly according to present plans.

In view of a probable increase of about 200 election precincts in the county, women may be employed at $8 a day each, to serve in the election booths as judges and clerks.

Women, also, may be commissioned notaries public. Many business men, it is said, desire that their women stenographers and clerks be thus commissioned in order that they may officially witness signatures to papers.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

State Leaders See Harding.

Marion, O., Aug. 20.—Republican leaders gathered at Columbus for the meeting of the state central committee made a pilgrimage to Marion last evening for a conference with Senator Harding on the reorganization program. Among the party were Harry L. Davis, nominee for governor; Frank B. Willis, senatorial nominee; Walter F. Brown, Toledo, and George H. Clark, chairman of the state advisory committee. Out of the conference is expected to develop a plan for the state campaign this fall as well as a tentative slate for organization managers.

Charged With Theft.

Toledo, Aug. 20.—J. C. Norman, who is said to be a son of former Judge James S. Norman, Chicago banker and oil man, is under arrest here, charged with theft of $5,000 worth of negotiable securities from a Chicago bond house, where he was employed. He was caught in the neighborhood of the postoffice when Pearl Yarnell, 19, whom Norman is said to have married, called for mail.

Stabs Wife to Death.

Columbus, Aug. 20.—Angered at her he had heard of her keeping company with another, Andy Davy, 38, killed his wife. He stabbed the woman with a knife 40 times. When he had finished with the knife he reached for a seven-foot scimitar and struck her twice over the head, police say.

Twins Fatally Burned.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Little 11-months-old Clara Freedman is dead and her twin brother, Albert, was probably fatally burned here as the result of a fire in the crib in which they were sleeping. A gauze cover caught fire from a light.

Constituents, August 20.—via London, Aug. 20.—The Russian Soviet army on the south Russian (Crimean) front has increased its pressure against the army of General Wrangel and was reported to be advancing along the entire front.

The reds have reached round only 10 miles west of the Alexandrovsk-Deriansk railway north of the Sea of Azov. Violent fighting is in progress between the Bolsheviks and General Wrangel's "white" forces southwest of Orikov in the vicinity of Kahova. The reds have been reinforced.

New York is estimated to be the largest state with a population of 10,740,395. The estimate will be considerably changed when the figures for the 1920 population are made public, according to officials of the census bureau.

NEW FIELDS OPEN TO WOMEN UNDER SUFFRAGE MEASURE

Ohio Women Will Have Equal Rights In November.

Columbus, O., Aug. 20.—Ohio women voters will have equal rights with the male voters in voting for candidates and issues at the November election, unless ratification of the federal suffrage amendment is delayed by litigation.

This is the opinion expressed by S. M. Johnson, chief statistician at the secretary of state's office. Johnson, who has held this position for many years, compiles and tabulates election records. He is an authority on election matters.

Franklin county election officials declare that, under the federal suffrage amendment, women not only will be eligible for any political office in the nation but will be permitted to help count and tabulate the votes.

In view of a probable increase of about 200 election precincts in the county, women may be employed at $8 a day each, to serve in the election booths as judges and clerks.

Women, also, may be commissioned notaries public. Many business men, it is said, desire that their women stenographers and clerks be thus commissioned in order that they may officially witness signatures to papers.

BERGDOLL SENTENCED TO FOUR YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON

Draft Dodger Gets Term In Leavenworth Penitentiary.

New York, Aug. 20.—Erwin R. Bergdoll of Philadelphia was found guilty of desertion from the army by evading the draft and sentenced to four years at hard labor at Fort Leavenworth, it was announced at Governor's Island. Lieutenant Colonel C. C. Cresson, trial judge advocate in the Bergdoll case, who made the announcement, said that Bergdoll was also given a dishonorable discharge from the army and forfeited all pay allowances. Bergdoll received his sentence calmly and made no comment. He will be taken to Fort Leavenworth within a few days under a heavy guard, army authorities said.

Erwin and his brother, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, were known as the "millionaire draft dodgers." Grover is now being sought by the military authorities, having escaped from an armed guard at Philadelphia after being convicted by an army court-martial for draft evasion.

RUSSIAN SOVIETS PRESSING WRANGEL

Constantinople, August 19.—via London, Aug. 20.—The Russian Soviet army on the south Russian (Crimean) front has increased its pressure against the army of General Wrangel and was reported to be advancing along the entire front.

The reds have reached round only 10 miles west of the Alexandrovsk-Deriansk railway north of the Sea of Azov. Violent fighting is in progress between the Bolsheviks and General Wrangel's "white" forces southwest of Orikov in the vicinity of Kahova. The reds have been reinforced.

CLEVELAND BOYS NOURISH HOPE

Cleveland, O., Aug. 20.—There's hope for the small boy yet!

A difference of opinion between the board of education here and the school book companies over prices has been finally adjusted but Superintendent of Schools R. J. Jones does not believe that the needed supplies, can reach here in time for the opening of schools, Sept. 13.

The price—of course, the public will pay more. It is estimated that necessary books will cost $28,000 over last year's prices.

PONZI HINTS THAT BIG BLOWUP MAY BE FORTH COMING

Attributes Downfall To Prominent Men Of Boston.

Boston, Aug. 20.—Charles Ponzi was arraigned before United States Commissioner Hays here on the charge of using the mails to defraud. Ponzi pleaded not guilty, waived examination and was held in $25,000 bail for the September term of the United States district court.

Crowds in the courtroom gathered around Ponzi in an effort to grasp his hand and he smiled broadly in appreciation. "All that I ask," he said, "is that I be given 60 days in the custody of two guards and I will be able to meet all my obligations."

I have received $5,500 through the mails, which shows the confidence the public still repose in me." He added that he had turned the money over to a sheriff.

Ponzi told deputy United States marshals that his downfall was due to withdrawal of support by a man prominent in the city's financial circles.

"There is likely to be a big blowup within a few days," he was quoted as saying to the deputies, "if I tell what I know about a certain man, prominent in Boston, who poses as a philanthropist and public benefactor, there will be a great change of sentiment. This man promised to stand by me, and was under agreement to support me financially, but he wanted the lion's share of the profits and because he did not get enough, he drew out."

COLE CAMPAIGN IN OHIO COST $28,250 SHOWN IN ACCOUNT

Contributions Totalling Over $25,000 Listed In Report.

Columbus, O., Aug. 20.—That the unsuccessful campaign to nominate former Congressman Ralph D. Cole, Findlay, Republican for governor involved an expenditure of $28,250 by the Cole State Committee, is shown in the expense account filed with the Secretary of State Smith by Murray Hoffman, Chairman of the committee.

The report lists contributions totalling $25,697. Cole personally spent $984, according to an expense account which he filed separately. These expenditures do not include those of various local Cole organizations throughout Ohio.

The reds have reached round only 10 miles west of the Alexandrovsk-Deriansk railway north of the Sea of Azov. Violent fighting is in progress between the Bolsheviks and General Wrangel's "white" forces southwest of Orikov in the vicinity of Kahova. The reds have been reinforced.

MASKED BANDITS
STEAL $1,000 IN
JEWELS FROM HOME

Robbery Committed In Columbus Ohio,
Residence

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—After holding up Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Brown, in their East Broad street home early today, four masked bandits stole $1,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry and escaped in an automobile.

Entrance was gained by smashing glass in a front window. Dr. and Mrs. Brown were awakened by the bandits poking guns in their faces. Before entering the house, the thieves severed all telephone wires. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were sleeping in separate rooms. The bandits paired off as they entered the two bed rooms. Dr. Brown has offered $2500 reward for recovery of the stolen goods.

AUTHORITIES PROBE STORY OF DESERTION

Authorities were investigating Wednesday a story to the effect that an eight months old baby had been left at the home of John Bryant at Goss Station by a young woman, a stranger. The woman carried the baby into the house and then hurried away according to the story.

Probate Judge J. C. Marshall was notified and he instructed Sheriff Funderburg to investigate the story Wednesday afternoon.

CHARGED WITH VIOLATING LAWS

Cleveland, O., Aug. 19.—Rudolph Paul was arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of violating the federal liquor laws. In a raid yesterday police seized 840 quarts of whiskey in his saloon on West 25th street.

PROMINENT LAWYER ENDORSES DRECO

Was weak, nervous, rundown, could not sleep, had no appetite, suffered from headaches and liver was sluggish. Dreco relieved all these troubles.

"My health is better than it has been for years and I feel like a different person," are the words of that well known and highly respected lawyer, Mr. J. B. Ferguson, of Cambridge, Ohio.

"When I began taking Dreco I was very thin and felt tired and listless all the time. I was weak and highly nervous, and my sleep was broken every night. Headaches often attacked me and also dizzy spells caused me much anxiety."

"There was so much praise being given the new root and herb medicine, Dreco, I decided to try it, and to say that I am happy over the results is expressing it mildly; for my stomach troubles are gone, I eat big, hearty meals, and nothing disagrees with me now. I don't know what it is to have a headache or dizzy spells; my nerves are quiet and I sleep the whole night through without waking. I go about my work with new energy, and am not tired out when the day is over. Yes sir, I am proud of what Dreco has done for me, and you certainly have my permission to publish this in the papers."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have a dear old mother, one I could die for. I have some brothers and one sister who care nothing for her. My father is dead. Mother is in her sixties and crippled up with rheumatism and other ailments. She never complains. She has tried to work and support herself, but her health is nearly gone.

She has been living with me and I do without and get for her. I have three children to clothe while my sister hasn't any and my brother only one. Isn't it a disgrace for children to treat an aged parent in that way?

She goes and drags and works for them like a slave when they need her, and then maybe give her a dollar or two. Many nights I am awake and hear her crying. I don't think she ever sleeps a peaceful night and she has told me that she wished she were in her grave—that no one cared for her—if she only had a little room somewhere she would take washings to do.

What can be done? If I were to go to them and tell them they would only get angry. Is it no principle, no sense, or just downright meanness? I feel that I can't stand it. We will not have our dear old mother long and why can't they treat her with respect as long as she is with us? My brother's wife is as mean as she can be and I think he is afraid to do much.

A BROKEN-HEARTED DAUGHTER.

Keep on doing as you have done. Your love for your mother brings a little light into her life even if it is dimmed by mistreatment from her other children. They will get their pay for what they are doing. There is a higher law which punishes and rewards. Your sister, brother and sister-in-law cannot escape the reaction of their cruelty. I know that you are not thinking of reward. Nevertheless it is coming and some time, either in this life or in the beyond, you will benefit by every kindness you do.

It is difficult to explain why your relatives are so mean. They certainly have little souls. A sensitive person cannot bear to cause or see suffering. I believe if I were you I would try to overlook the meanness of your relatives. Simply know that by the higher law they will get what they deserve.

Your old mother is happier when she is serving someone. Perhaps if you gave her little tasks she would feel more needed in the world. Let her assist you with the housework, with sewing or in any way you think she can. Also ask her advice about matters and take her into your confidence.

Perhaps you suffer even more than your mother. Strength is given to those who must suffer and usually they do not fully comprehend all that they endure.

Keep your heart full of love. To interfere or advise the other members of your family would do little if any good. A good life is an inspiration to others and even if your brother and sister do not profit by your efforts, others will see and will be made better.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girl friends, aged fifteen and twenty.

Is it proper for a boy to take the lead when going to church?

Are suits going to be worn all summer?

FAIR BLONDE AND BROWN-EYED LASSIE.

The girl should take the lead.

Yes, suits will be worn all summer. I have never seen the summer when they were not.

Three separate affidavits filed against William Shields, cooperator, preceding Judge Precinct G, charging him with alleged election day frauds, were withdrawn by the three men who filed the affidavits Friday morning when the case was to come to trial before Police Judge E. Dawson Smith and a jury.

No reasons were given by the men for wishing to withdraw the affidavits, and attorneys for both sides denied knowledge of their motives.

Two of the affidavits, signed by Bunell Brown, and Jacob Wilson, both colored, charged Shields with refusing to swear them as to their eligibility to vote at the primaries, and the third affidavit was filed by Ephraim Greenway, colored, and challenger for the Marshall-Gowdy faction in Precinct G, who charged Shields with entering a booth with William Lawrence, colored, and aiding him in marking his ballot, although Lawrence was not blind or otherwise incapacitated to mark his own ticket. All three of these men were present to withdraw the charges and agreed to pay the court costs on the case.

Immediately following the withdrawal of the charges, two more affidavits signed by Frank Stokes, and

Henry Webster, both colored, were filed charging two separate offenses of refusing to swear a voter as to his eligibility, against Shields. Police

Judge E. Dawson Smith set the case for next Tuesday morning at nine o'clock.

Friday afternoon Judge Marcus

Shoup of the Schmidt-Shoup politication in local politics, and attorney for Shields, filed affidavits against both Stokes and Webster, charging them with voting illegally since they were non-residents of this city or of G precinct. They are ex-soldiers receiving treatment for army wounds at Washington Hospital.

The charges and counter charges grew out of the factional fight between the Marshall-Gowdy faction and the Schmidt-Shoup faction for control of the central committed voted on at the Republican primaries, by the Marshall-Gowdy faction. In Precinct G the fight was especially bitter, Shields, representing the

Schmidt-Shoup faction, being elected by several votes over Philip Thomas, of opposite factional faith.

Friday afternoon Judge Shoup said that the three men who signed the affidavits had withdrawn them without coercion, that they had

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE, THE DAY WOMEN BECOME "FELLOW CITIZENS" OF ALL RIGHTS.

The Tennessee Legislature on Wednesday ratified the Woman's Suffrage Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and this being the thirty-sixth state to do so, makes it the law of the land.

This giving of equal rights to twenty-six millions of our citizens is an event of most momentous importance, not only to them, but to the whole country. So it is that their fathers and brothers rejoice with them.

It was always their right as "citizens," but men arrogated to themselves the business of public government, not only of themselves but of women also. The women protested but loyally man, like any other thief, refused to divide what he had stolen.

Justice is the ligament which upholds civilization, and of course it had to come, but man having imperiously denied it so long "died hard" in the giving. In fact he felt as if very generous in the restoration of this sample of "stolen goods."

"Woman was taken out of man, not out of his head to top him, nor out of his feet to be trampled under foot; but out of his side to be EQUAL to him."

If we would know the political and moral condition of a state, we must ask what rank women hold in it. Their influence embraces the true index of conditions. Have not we just given the most convincing evidence that we recognize this?

And while we have just given her her political rights, we are sure beyond cavil that as a nation we are going to be the infinite gainer in Uprightness, for there lives scarcely a man but acknowledges that women are the salt of the earth. God pity the world should female influence for Morality be denied.

So it is that the nation rejoices as one man that this forward step in civilization, Equal Suffrage, is coming to us. We all feel that it betokens an enlarged realization of the "Brotherhood of Man."

POLAND, IN A DEATH STRUGGLE, APPEALS IN VAIN TO THE PATRIOTISM OF THE WORLD.

European crises, particularly that of Poland, absorb today the attention of all clear-thinking men and women. The eyes of the whole world are focused on the country which has become the center of the struggle between barbarism and a world freedom, yet few seem to realize the significance of the outcome of this struggle.

Let us for a moment consider the fact that as every individual being is born endowed with a right to exist, so is each individual nation. As the existence of each individual depends upon his cooperation with his fellow-beings, a co-operation based upon unselfish and sacrificial ideas, so does the existence of a nation.

In 1772 Poland was divided among three neighboring nations and deprived of its political life. It was one of the most hideous crimes committed in the history of mankind, yet not a word of protest came from any other nation that looked on in silent indifference. Even that highly moral institution, the church did not condemn the robbery. The nations at that time failed to realize that by their indifference they have allowed the planting and flourishing of the germ of militarism, which their descendants had to face in 1914.

Simultaneously with the fall of Poland there was founded on this side of the Atlantic a new nation; one founded not upon the principles of conquest but upon those of liberty, justice and independence. That nation is our great United States today.

Together with the growth of militarism under the care of Prussian junkers in Europe developed the champion of liberty in America, growing stronger with each new generation until rich in the manhood and resources of a gigantic nation. It may well be looked up to for aid by Poland and other oppressed nations of the world.

Poland, were she left alone to live her own life, would be one of the freest and strongest republics among the nations of the earth today, ready to fight not only her own battles, but those of her neighbors. Had she been free to develop, Poland would fight Prussian militarism (termed bolshevism) effectively. The nations of the world, with the probable exception of France, do not seem to understand that Poland is not fighting Russia; that she is not waging a war of aggression (her history proves that she is not an aggressive nation). They fail to see that she, single-handed, is resisting their common enemy. Would they but see and go to her help without delay to quench the fire which is destroying her and is threatening to destroy Europe and eventually America.

TOIL OR TURMOIL

I hope, in our campaigning, we won't disturb the map; too often we are straining to open up a scrap; too often, in the clangor of windsmith and haranguer, and t'other wild slap-banger, we swat the other chap. Too oft we quit our labors, neglect our growing beans, to wrangle with the neighbors o'er what this campaign means; and it were better, saner, to be a strict abander from tricks of the campaigner, and raise a lot of greens. The winter's drawing closer, the summer's almost spent, and wind won't pay the grocer, and talk won't pay the rent; and when the wolf is yelling before your humble dwelling, all kinds of want foretelling, your lost hours you'll lament. I hear the statesmen bellow, I see them paw the soil, but I'm the prudent fellow who sticks to useful toil; and when the snow is falling, and stormy winds are brawling, and kids for grub are calling, I'll have a cow to boil. I'm working in the gadding, I'm earning useful rocks; perhaps I'll vote for Harding, perhaps I'll vote for Cox; but while the spuds are growing each day will see me hoing, not idly to-and-froing to hand out roasts or knocks.

ing an active part in securing Tennessee's ratification of suffrage and insuring women's rights for the country.

"The success of woman suffrage will be the climax of one of the country's most interesting reforms," said Dr. Fess in Springfield Thursday. Like the abolition of slavery and the adoption of prohibition it took generations to bring it about. The great war stimulated the reform, which grew with amazing rapidity, only to be resisted by certain elements in a life and death struggle.

NEW COUNTY PROJECT INCLUDES FRANKLIN AND MIDDLETON

Citizens of Middleton and Franklin who desire to remove their communities from the jurisdiction of Hamilton and Lebanon are backing a movement to form a new county from portions of Warren and Butler counties, the new county to include Middleton and Franklin.

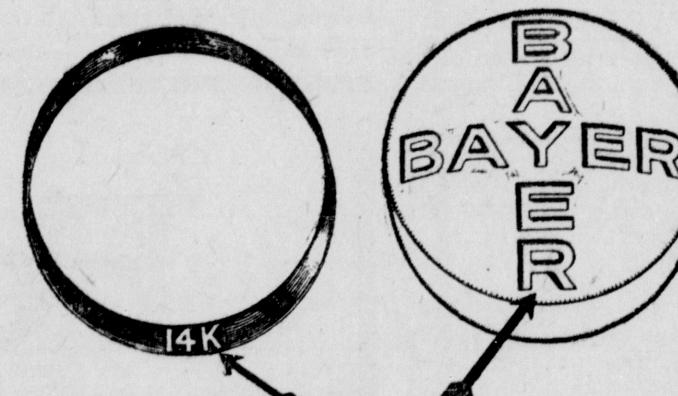

Tentative plans prepared by backers of the movement call for the establishment of the new county out of Franklin township in Warren County, of which Lebanon is the county seat, and Lemon and Madison townships in Butler County, of which Hamilton is the county seat.

It is claimed that politics enter in no way into the proposed plan but that the project arises from a desire to more closely ally the communities of Franklin and Middleton, which have many interests in common, while it is pointed out, Franklin and Lebanon have little or nothing in common in the way of community interest.

If the plan materializes the newly created county will have a popula-

Is It Yours

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF RAYMOND POINCARE August 20, 1860

Raymond Poincare, ex-president of France and president during the War, was born at Bar-le-Duc 60 years ago today. Like General Foch, he came from Alsace-Lorraine, and it was like a personal victory to him when the Germans were forced to give up the stolen territory.

Poincare was educated in Paris and decided to take up the study of law. When he was 19 he went through his period of military service, and for some years afterwards earned his living as a journalist. His real public life began when he was 26, when he was made private secretary to the minister of agriculture.

He decided to specialize in finance and soon had a great reputation in the French Academy as an economist. He was minister of education, fine arts and religion in one cabinet, and minister of finance for two more cabinets. He is credited, along with Sir Edward Grey, in preventing the spread of the Balkan War some years ago into a general European conflict, and he is also credited with defeating

SUFFRAGIST LEADER SOUNDS BATTLE CRY TO FUTURE VICTORY

Women Won Franchise
Declares Alice Paul In Statement

Washington, August 19.—Alice Paul, head of the National Woman's Party and long a militant suffrage leader today sounded a new battle cry for women.

Women are not fully free, Miss Paul warned, even though it appears that victory has been won by the sale of Mr. J. S. Brown's stock.

Whatever new rights the women receive they must fight for, Miss Paul said. They can expect nothing from the politicians, she tells them, until they stand as a unit in a party of their own.

"Suffrage was not won by the Democratic or Republican party in spending a three weeks vacation has returned home."

Mr. John P. Martin left for Cincinnati this morning in the interests of electric railway matters.

Mr. Marshall Wolf of the Citizens Bank who with his wife has been spending the last analysis but by women themselves," Miss Paul said in an exclusive interview.

"To generations of American women who fought for the political freedom of their sex belongs the credit of their victory.

It was won by the thousands of women who sacrificed health and careers, who suffered physical violence and every other indignity, even to imprisonment in the long, weary struggle to secure that freedom which should belong to every one of our citizens."

Mr. W. B. McCalister handed in his resignation as a member of the police force here to the Board of Police Commissioners last night. He has been a member of the force two years.

BRITTON ACCEPTS CHALLENGE

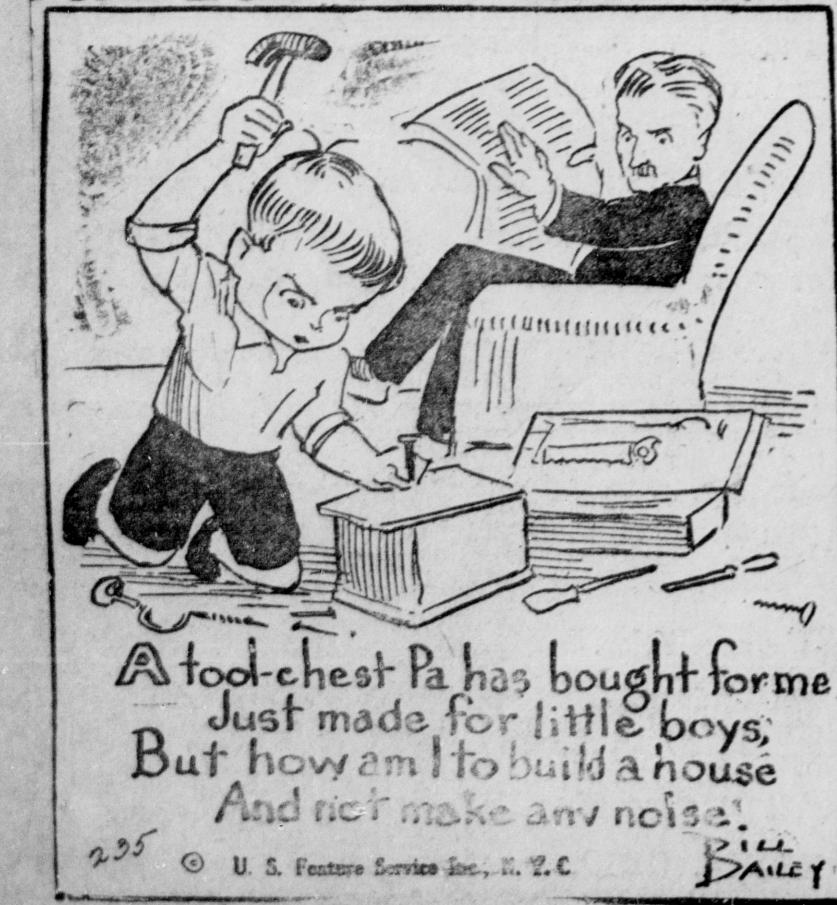

London, Aug. 19.—The Polish legion fears bolshevik trickery in a comeback after six years absence the armistice and preliminary peace negotiations which were to have been resumed by the Russian and Polish delegations at Minsk yesterday. The Polish delegation announced at one weight title at Cedar Point on Labor Day.

HAT-CHOOSING SEASON IS HERE AGAIN

Golden brown shades are the fashionable tones for fall millinery, but it is not everybody that can wear the popular shades. That is always the thing to be guarded in buying fashionable clothing. The smartest things of the season are not always the things which are universally becoming. Perhaps it is more risky to buy colored hats than any other bit of wearing apparel. The hat is so near one's face it may easily spoil the color of one's eyes, hair, complexion and yet with the careful woman or in the hands of an artist the hat may make one beautiful. It may deepen the color of one's eyes, bring out all the pretty tints of one's hair or form a pretty frame for the cheeks. Here are two hats in golden brown shade which the blond, the auburn-haired girl or the brown-haired miss can wear with good effect.

KIDDIE KAPERS By BILL BAILEY

Warsaw nor the Polish officials at Posen had received any word regarding the renewal of the negotiations at Minsk.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

All the ladies of the Xenia telephone exchange refused to go to work yesterday morning. New rules are made by General Manager Little making the girls work on Sunday and placing Cash Gordon as chief operator in place of Mrs. Bradley, who has caused the strike. Mr. Little is away and Superintendent Harry Clark is unable to induce them to return to work. Heretofore the men have handled the Sunday work four girls are on strike.

Mr. W. L. Marshall the auctioneer is near Cedarville, having charge of the sale of Mr. J. S. Brown's stock and farm implements.

Mr. John P. Martin left for Cincinnati this morning in the interests of electric railway matters.

Mr. Marshall Wolf of the Citizens Bank who with his wife has been spending a three weeks vacation has returned home.

Mr. Fred Baldner will leave first of the month for Chicago where he will put in operation one of the largest twine mills in the west.

It is stated that the Republican Times of Springfield, one of the oldest publications in this part of the state will be merged with the morning press a new morning paper recently started by E. S. Kelly.

XENIANS SEE GOLF MATCHES AT DAYTON

Several Xenians were in the large galleries at the Miami Valley Country Club, Dayton, and the Dayton Country Club Thursday and witnessed Ted Ray and Harry Vardon, famous English golfers, give two brilliant exhibition matches, winning one and losing one.

At the Miami Valley Club in the morning, Walter G. Sherwood representative of the Burke Golf Co., of Newark, and Ed. Millen, professional of the Miami Valley Club, defeated the Englishmen one up, Sherwood taking a 77, while Ray had an even 80. Millen 81 and Vardon 82.

The largest gallery attended the match at the Dayton Club in the afternoon when Ray and Vardon defeated the team made up of George O. Sargent, professional of the Scioto Club Columbus, and Joe S. Nicoll, professional of the Dayton Country Club, two up in best ball match. In this match Ray showed some of the power that makes him a champion and proved that he has the longest drive and the best put in the game today. His drive on the 13th hole was a 300 yard shot from the tee. The Dayton Country Club Cards gave Ray a 74, Vardon a 77. Sargent 76 and Nicoll 78. On the best ball cards Ray and Vardon had a 70 and Sargent and Nicoll 72.

The presence of the English champs in Dayton drew a number of golfers from other places and the gallery at both matches was the largest this season.

Sports MASON DEFENDS TITLE THURSDAY

Frankie Mason, the Fort Wayne midge, defended his flyweight championship title easily against Indian Russell, of Butte, Mont. in the bout staged by the Greater Springfield Athletic Association at Springfield Thursday night.

Mason was never in danger and he worried the western lad through all stages of the twelve round fracas being awarded the decision by referee Lou Baumann. In the twelve round semi-windup Willie Calahan of Baltimore and Joe Wright of Philadelphia battled to a draw and in the six round preliminary Young Everett of Columbus knocked out Joe Everett of Springfield in the first round.

Although rain-soaked the landscape, it failed to dampen the ardor of some two hundred Knights of Columbus and their families and friends, of Wilmington and Xenia Councils, who picnicked jointly on Kilkare park Thursday.

Owing to the downpour of rain however, which started about three o'clock in the afternoon, some of the events planned for the afternoon entertainment of the picnickers had to be called off. The baseball game between a team picked from Xenia Council and one from Wilmington Council, which was to have been a feature of the afternoon program, was brought to a halt by the rain just as the players were starting the pasture.

Dancing was enjoyed during the afternoon rain, which started about three o'clock, revolved around the Health Center, to be set up as working headquarters. Clinics of all kinds are to be held at the Health Center and medical services are restricted to those people to whom such services would not otherwise be available.

The plan for an experiment district, revolved around the Health Center, to be set up as working headquarters. Clinics of all kinds are to be held at the Health Center and medical services are restricted to those people to whom such services would not otherwise be available. The clinics are not meant to take the place of the general practitioner or specialist, but to supplement their work by making such service available to the poor and to others who do not avail themselves of medical attention. There will be a campaign of life extension, seeking to educate the public to the value of periodic examinations as a means of avoiding disease and prolonging life. Lectures will be given at the Health Center, illustrated and supplemented by posters, pamphlets, lantern slides and motion pictures. The Center workers and professional teams will be sent out through the county. Centralized school bandings will be selected for these posts wherever possible and co-operation of the teachers and boards of education will be enlisted.

The specific aims of the demonstration are to provide for the immediate control of communicable diseases, particularly typhoid and diphtheria; to cause a reduction in infant morbidity and mortality; to reduce the prevalence of venereal diseases and to provide for the treatment of all venereal cases

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Souffle of Rice—Steam a half cup of rice until tender, then mix the yolk of one egg into the rice, one teaspoon of salt and one cup of milk. Beat the white separately and fold it into the other ingredients. Bake slowly in moderate oven. Can be sweetened if desired.

Bran Muffins—Ingredients: Two cups bran flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon sugar, one egg, one tablespoon melted fat, one cup sour milk, one-half teaspoon soda.

Min dry ingredients except soda, add beaten eggs, the next sour milk with the soda mixed into it, stir until smooth, add fat last. Turn into muffin pans, fill about two-thirds full. Bake in hot oven about twenty minutes.

Pot Roast of Beef With Tomato Sauce—Get the cheapest cut of pot roast, salt well, fry on all sides until golden brown, then take off medium sized onion, cut it up fine and brown it nicely and turn in with the meat, add a dash of red pepper, parsley and thyme. Then pour water in with the meat to about one inch depth. Let all this simmer for about a half hour, then pour in one can of tomatoes over the meat and other ingredients and let cook slowly for three hours. When cooked, steam your spaghetti and serve the tomato sauce on it. You will find this way very cheap and delicious meal.

REQUESTED RECIPES

Baked Potatoes With Eggs—For six persons bake six nice large potatoes until soft. Allow one egg for each potato. Separate whites from yolks of egg, keeping yolks whole. Beat whites to stiff froth.

When potatoes have baked cut a round hole in top of each and scoop out inside of all, and with this beat the whites of eggs. Then put one tablespoon of butter (melted) to each potato, salt, pepper and return to skins, leaving a hollow in the top; into this slip the yolk and sprinkle the top with breadcrumbs. Dot with tiny bits of butter, return to oven long enough to set the egg. Serve very hot.

Raisin Cake—Two cups of raisins (cool fifteen minutes in two cups of cold water, add one cup cold water), two tablespoons butter, spices (one teaspoon each), two cups sugar, four cups flour, citron or nuts, one tablespoon soda in hot water.

Frosting: Two cups light brown sugar, one-half cup butter, one-half cup cream. Use evaporated cream. Icing (very cheap)—One-half cup white corn syrup, one egg white.

Put syrup and egg white in bowl, then put the bowl in a pan of boiling water and beat with an egg beater still stiff; then flavor.

This is a good icing for any kind of cake.

Canned Lemon Juice—One cup water, one cup sugar, strained juice of twelve lemons. Bring the water and sugar to a boil and add the strained juice of the twelve lemons. When the mixture has boiled pour the syrup into sterilized jars and seal. One tablespoon of the syrup makes a glass of lemonade.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

A VISIT TO THE MOVIES
Chapter 95

"Please come to the movies with us tonight, Zena. I promised Tom I would ask you."

Just then Thomas Clancy came after her, and she turned to him:

"I just gave your message to Zena, Tom."

"I had planned to practice typing tonight. I must get more speed," I broke in.

"No girl, especially one who has been sick, Miss Zena, can work all day and all the evening too, without breaking down," Thomas said in his hearty way.

"Better put on your hat and come to the movies with us. It will do you good."

Zena thinks we want to make love and she will be in the way!" Mary declared.

"Miss Zena knows I love you, Mary, and that you care for me, and that we are going to get married. I ain't ashamed to let her see me kiss you good-night."

I admired his honesty and told him so. Thomas was really fine in his way—a real gentleman, even tho he was of lowly parentage and had little education. He was smart and clever too. He used fairly good language, better than Mary did. Probably he had had the opportunity of meeting people who influenced his speech, while until the last year Mary had been with those who made careless speaking a habit.

I finally consented to go to the movies. That we were to have an experience more thrilling than any that appeared on the screen. I wouldn't have believed; nor would I have gone if I had doubted if revenge would have been so had I suspected any such thing.

The picture was very good. When the comics were being shown, I closed my eyes and relaxed, smiling to hear Mary and Thomas laugh so heartily at the antics of Mutt and Jeff.

"Come on, girls!" Thomas said, taking an arm of each of us.

"Officer! That fellow knocked my pal down, arrest him!" Joe howled just as an officer came up.

"What's all this? Did you knock him down?" The officer, who had a kindly face and twinkling Irish eyes, asked Thomas.

"Sure I did! And so would you. He has been trying to insult these ladies I have with me—he and his pal."

"Is that right?" The officer looked directly at me.

"Indeed it is, Officer," I answered, anxious to get away from the fast gathering crowd. "It isn't the first time they have annoyed us, but it is the first time we have been fortunate enough to be with an Irishman to defend us."

"Any Irish in you maybe?" the officer asked with a broad grin. "Good evening, girls! It's a long time since we seen you." It was Mike who spoke, while Joe came leering back again.

"These young ladies are with me," Thomas said quietly.

"They is now, but they is goin' with me and Joe. Ain't you, sweetie?" Unfortunately for them their last remark was addressed to Mary. The result might have been the same had they spoken to me, but somehow I have believed; nor would I have doubted if revenge would have been so
